APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY ORIGINAL LICENSE

Please review the applicable laws and rules for the complete licensure requirements. Please read all application questions carefully. Several questions, if answered Yes, require additional documentation. You are required to contact the source of the required documentation and request the said documentation be submitted directly to the Board office at the address above. If the source will not provide the documentation, or the documentation is otherwise unobtainable, you must submit a written explanation and any documents in your possession that would assist the Board in reviewing your application. All requested information, application fee, and initial license fee must be provided. Processing will be delayed for applications that do not include a social security number or other documentation required under Idaho Code § 73-122. Completed licensure applications along with all requested documentation must be received in the Bureau of Occupational Licenses at least 7 business days prior to the next scheduled meeting. Applications received after that date may be held over for the Board's next meeting.

Application Checklist

Please use this checklist as a guide to completing your application. This method is for those who are new licensees. Those who are licensed in another state with requirements substantially similar to Idaho should fill out the endorsement application. Please remember any supporting documentation must come directly from the issuing source.

Requirements for Licensure in the State of Idaho may be found in Idaho Code § 54-2913

Definitions

Definitions pertaining to the practice of Speech Language Pathology in the state of Idaho may be found in Idaho Code § 54-2903. Please review the statute on our website: www.ibol.idaho.gov.

License Requirement

Except as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the practice or to perform or offer to practice speech-language pathology unless such person is duly licensed. A license issued by the Board shall be posted in the licensee's established place of business or carried upon the person, and shall be presented as proof of licensure upon demand.

Provisional permit.

The board may issue a provisional permit to allow a person to engage in the practice of speech-language pathology while completing either the required postgraduate experience or a comparable experience as required by Idaho law. The holder of a provisional permit may practice only while under the supervision of a person fully licensed under Idaho law. (See Rule 460.) Please use the Provisional Permit Application form.

Dual licensure.

A person may be licensed as both an audiologist and a speech-language pathologist if such person duly meets the requirements of licensure for both. A person obtaining licensure as both an audiologist and a speech-language pathologist shall be charged fees as though the person had obtained only one (1) license.

ATTENTION MEMBERS AND SPOUSES OF MEMBERS OF THE ARMED SERVICES

If you are a member of the armed forces, an honorably discharged veteran or the spouse of an active member or veteran of the military, you are entitled to certain benefits because of your service. Those benefits may include expedited processing of your application, the waiver of application and renewal fees and credit for military training that is relevant to the occupational license/registration for which you are applying. For a full explanation of eligibility and a comprehensive description of benefits available, see Idaho Code §§ 67-9301-9307 and Idaho Code § 67-2602A.

Note: The applicant's signature must be notarized. The applicants must declare the answers provided are true in front of a notary (jurat). The language "subscribed and sworn" must appear before the applicant's signature. An "acknowledgement" where the notary only verifies the identity of the applicant is not acceptable.

If the name on your application does not match the proof of age document or the transcripts, please provide proof of the name change in the form of a marriage certificate, divorce decree or court order.
